

Laundry room regulations

Published by the Association of Property Owners, Zurich
(Waschküchenordnung - Englische Übersetzung)

1. The laundry room and all drying rooms, ironing rooms etc. as well as the laundry hanging area are for the exclusive use of the entitled tenant for the time specified in the laundry schedule.

The tenant specified in the laundry schedule is responsible for compliance with the laundry room regulations throughout this time.

2. If a tenant wishes to arrange unscheduled use of the laundry room, drying rooms, ironing room etc., the consent of the scheduled user must be obtained. Note that the responsibility for compliance with the laundry room regulations remains with the scheduled party.
3. Washing machine, tumbler etc. may only be used between 06.00 and 22.00.
4. Laundry room, drying rooms, ironing room and laundry hanging area, and in particular all belonging appliances and facilities, shall be passed on to the next user on the schedule, cleaned and tidied, by handing over the laundry room key.
5. In handing over the key the tenant also hands over responsibility for the laundry room to the following user. The previous user and, if appropriate, the house management shall be notified of any defects.
